NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The effect of the failure of Duncan, Sherman & Co. on the stock market of New York amounted almost to a panic, but it lasted but a few moments.

Grant's cotton mills at Glasgow were burned yesterday. Loss $500,000.

The new constitution of Spain provides that the colonies shall have representation in the Cortez.

Fifty-one mills were closed at Dundee yesterday and 12,000 operatives thrown out of employment. If the strike continues 30,000 people will be out of work.

The Secretary of the Treasury has issued a call for the redemption of nearly fifteen millions of five-twenty bonds.

A hard money convention is to be held in Cincinnati on the 25th of October.

The failure of Duncan, Sherman & Co. produced no effect on the London market.

The losses of Duncan, Sherman & Co. on cotton alone exceed one million dollars.

Several large firms in New York and one in Philadelphia suspended yesterday.

Our dispatches throw some light on the quarrel between Spinner and Bristow.

General Bidwell addressed about four hundred people in this city last evening. He explained all about his difficulties with Graham, but his voice is so weak that but few of the crowd could hear what he said.

"Black Jack," a noted safe-breaker, was captured by a party of Sheriff's men at Davisville, Solano county, night before last.

A better explosion near Santa Clara yesterday killed one man and severely injured two others.

An examination of the cell of J. D. Lee, the Mountain Meadows assassin, resulted in the discovery of hatchets, saws and other implements intended to aid him to escape.

Ex-Senator Finney, of San Mateo county, was found dead near his residence yesterday morning. He had been shot through the head. No explanation as to the cause or author of the deed is given.

THE Alta is publishing copies of documents found in the Spanish archives which prove that in 1841 BIRDWELL renounced his allegiance to the United States and became a citizen of Mexico.

SHIPPERS, merchants, consumers and the traveling public will find an interesting advertisement in the HERALD of this morning. It comes from the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and announces a heavy reduction in the charges of freights and fares. General merchandise will now be brought from the anchorage at Wilmington to this city for two dollars and a half per ton. Fare between this city and the anchorage at Wilmington is reduced to fifty cents—a reduction of four fifths. Freight of the character enumerated in the advertisement are reduced to one dollar and fifty cents per ton between the anchorage and the city. This action on the part of the Railroad Company is one of vast importance to the people of this city and valley. It will save us many thousands of dollars annually.

OUR San Francisco dispatches say that business men are confident that the financial panic which now seems imminent in the East will not be seriously felt on this coast. A slight depression will of course be visible, but it is not probable that its effects will be noticeable in the legitimate branches of trade. It is fortunate for California that the crisis has been reached in the East. The steady demand for money in New York and the high price of gold tended to drain San Francisco of her gold, and had this depletion continued for some months longer and failures in the East followed as they most certainly would we should have felt the crash to a serious if not disastrous extent. As the trouble has come thus early it will be less severe in New York and we shall escape the consequences almost entirely.

THERE is an interminable war between J. W. SIMONTON and the editor of the San Francisco Post. SIMONTON is the head man of the Associated Press telegraphic reports and some years ago the Post man was sent East as telegraphic reporter for the San Francisco Herald. The Western Union then owned the only wire across the continent and of course SIMONTON soon pinched GEORGE out. From that day to this GEORGE has been after SIMONTON in season and out of season. Now and then SIMONTON comes back with a squelching rejoinder which convinces all that GEORGE knows no more about telegraphing than he does about editing a newspaper. SIMONTON represents a contemptible monopoly but GEORGE would have been in the monopoly long ago if he could have got there.

The Half Time System.

THE last issue of the Schoolmaster contains an article on the propriety of adopting the half time system in primary schools and offers considerable evidence to show that the plan has been adopted it has worked to the satisfaction of all. As a general rule primary schools of towns and cities are very much crowded. If the half time system was adopted the number of children in the school room would be reduced just one half and there is no doubt but that owing to the additional attention they would receive from their teacher they would advance as fast in their studies as they now do by attending all day. Three hours per day is amply sufficient time to compel a child of the average age found in primary schools to apply itself to study. Suppose a class of one hundred pupils is divided into two classes of fifty each, one of which is taught three hours in the forenoon and the other in the afternoon, it seems to us that though the teacher would be required to remain in the school room an hour or so longer each day, the result would be more satisfactory to parents, pupils and teachers than under the present system. We may add that on the half time plan only half the quantity of furniture is required that is used on the all day system. On this subject A. C. SHORTRIDGE of Indianapolis, Indiana, writes to Dr. W. T. LUCKY Supt. of our city schools as follows:

The half-day attendance with primary children in the Indianapolis schools in 1863. For a while there was some opposition to it, but for some time it did not receive a single criticism of the plan. In a few cases parents have expressed a desire to have children attend all day, but in almost every case, you could discover that the real desire was to have their children out of their own way all day rather than half the day. I could not return to the old system if there was no lack of room. Their progress was always satisfactory.

A Chapter of Runaways.

Yesterday evening about 6 o'clock, as Mr. Harman, with his wife and baby by his side, were driving along Second street, near the corner of Spring, he and his wife were dragged from the buggy by a rope attached to an unruly horse, led by a boy on horseback. The buggy horse, having no driver, started at a terrific pace towards Fort street, turning that corner, then around Third to Spring, along Spring to First, on First to Main and along Main towards the Court House. All this time the two-year-old baby kept on the seat, in an almost miraculous manner to the spectators. As the horse neared the Court House, Deputy Sheriff Burdick attempted to stop it, but missed the horse, and the work was done successfully by Spencer Reynolds, butcher for Gable Allen, who held the horse with an iron grasp. The baby was returned unhurt to its almost frantic mother, who was carried home in a fainting condition. Mr. Harman has a severe cut in the neck from the rope and we regret to hear that Mrs. Harman is delirious and dangerously ill.

About half past 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a buggy, occupied by two men, turned the corner of Commercial street, at Los Angeles, too rapidly, and they were thrown out, the buggy wrecked and mare injured. Both of these teams belonged to Campbell's stable, and he is certainly a fit subject for condolence, after such a run of bad luck.

The Lee Trial—Discovery of Implements to Aid Him to Escape.

BEAVER, Utah, July 28th.—Robert Kershaw, being sworn, said: George A. Smith, Brigham Young's counsel, came to Beaver City, and he told us not to do anything for the emigrants under penalty of being cut off from the Church. John Morgan sold them a cheese, and in two weeks was cut off from the church. Seth went South ahead of the emigrants. The emigrants came to the garden of the witness and wanted to buy peas, onions, and general vegetables; but he refused to sell to them, because he had been forbidden to do so. Smith spoke on the public square in Beaver. Seth Dodge was at the emigrants' camp, in Beaver, warning the people not to trade with them. Smith said John's army was coming and the people needed all the supplies they had, as they might be driven to the mountains. I was a Mormon, but am not now.

C. Matthews testified that he passed through with a freight train on the Southern California road from San Jose to Colton in 1871. Saw the train again at Mountain Meadows; they were corralled there. I went with a party, and had a gun. There was talk that the train had been stopped. I was a stranger there; had just come from the North. It was said that some of the old men who had mobbed the Mormons in the West were there; also, that they had poisoned the springs and outraged the people; that some of them helped to kill Joe Smith; that they were going to California to induce a sudden bankruptcy and fight the Mormons. I saw Lee there. After being there two days, I moved out of camp toward the emigrants. I was sick and did not go, but I heard the guns fired. The morning after the massacre the Indians disappeared from our camp.

E. W. Thompson, being sworn, said: I saw the train at Beaver. A letter was read in a meeting to the people of Beaver, counseling them not to sell to the emigrants generally.

At noon to-day suspicions of Lee's having aid to escape jail became so sure as to induce a sudden search. He was accordingly removed from the cell, and it was searched. He had in his pillow a huge butcher knife; under his mattress two compasses to drive in the wall and climb upon over the door to escape, with a long handle and a small hatchet with the corners broken off fresh, converting it into a stone chisel. In the bed-clothing were found one case-knife, with fine saw-teeth for cutting brass, and other implements. The jail is a small square stone building, the windows opening outwards. General Maxwell has mounted two extra guards and ordered Lee to be searched every time he is taken from the jail.

A Hard Money Convention.

NEW YORK, July 28th.—The Evening Post publishes the following this afternoon: "A meeting will be held to-morrow evening at the rooms of the Association of Political Reformers for the purpose of electing delegates from this city to the National Hard Money Convention to be held at Cincinnati on the 25th of October. The Convention is the outgrowth of the meeting held at the Tobacco Exchange, Richmond, on the 4th of May, which was attended by representatives of the tobacco trade and many other prominent merchants of that city, together with the leading bankers."

NEW YORK, July 28th.—The Post says the losses of Duncan, Sherman & Co. on cotton exceed $1,000,000. The Union Bank, of London, and Baring Bros. & Co. have both been guaranteed by Alex. Duncan. Judge Shipman, assigned of Duncan, Sherman & Co., was busy all day to-day with clerks making an examination of the books. A financial statement will not be ready for some time.

A Double Loss. TRENTON, N. J., July 29.—A. M.—The Trenton Banking Company, which has a $100,000 by the late Jay Cooke, now loses $100,000 by the suspension of Duncan, Sherman & Co. This amount may be exceeded.

Bank Failure. LOUISVILLE, July 28th.—The Tobacco Exchange Bank in this city closed its doors yesterday. The institution has been regarded for some time as in a precarious condition, and its present suspension has no connection whatever with the New York failure, and as far as can be learned no bank or person in this city has been affected by Duncan, Sherman & Co's suspension.

Indian News. ST. LOUIS, July 29th.—3 A. M.—A special evening dispatch from Springfield, Missouri, says a rumor had reached there that Col. W. H. Ross, principal Chief of the Cherokees and in relation to that position, was assassinated on Tuesday near Fort Gibson by a party of Downmen, his political opponents. Col. Boudier, who was in the Territory, is said to have fled North.

Earthquake. HARTFORD, July 29th.—3 A. M.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt in this city at 4 o'clock yesterday morning. It was felt in greater force in the Western part of the State.

Spinner and Bristow. CHICAGO, July 28th.—A Washington special says when Spinner and Bristow quarreled, it was on account of Spinner wanting to have his own way in administering the affairs of his office. Secretary Bristow declined to consult him, and was finally thrust aside altogether. Now comes J. J. New, and new threats. He threatens to have his own way or resign. The difficulty is that Bristow, while declining to give up to Spinner, gracefully yields to the Indianapolis Bank. It appears that Bristow has been making appointments in the Treasury Department, without consulting his head, and Morrison, on his own authority, has been making dismissals. New stood it as long as he could; but a day or two ago he determined to stop it, or throw up his office. He went to see Bristow, who began to reason with him as to the wisdom of the course that had been pursued. The Treasurer failed to see the force of the Secretary's logic, and with much feeling told him that he either must have entire control of appointments in his office, or that the Treasury would be vacated at once. The result was that New was the victor. To-day, however, he again became a little bellicose because the Secretary transferred Jas. Giffillan, his cashier, to the office of Chief Clerk, and it was done without asking the Treasurer and he did not like it. This little unpleasant feeling, however, can be bridged over without any serious result. The fact is that New is disgusted with public life. He is rich enough to be independent, and he means to be, but it is pretty certain that he will relinquish the office he holds as soon as he can do so without embarrassing Secretary Bristow.

A Card.

As I will shortly remove from the well known Cigar text to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, I take this opportunity to offer my entire stock of cigars, tobacco, pipes and smokers' articles, contained at the stand, at cost price. Any one buying a box of cigars will get them at manufacturer's price, as the stock must be closed out in a very short time. I do not wish to remove any of it to the store, identical, at 38, Main street, as the stock of cigars, tobacco, gents' furnishing goods is already large enough to supply all the wants of the public. The business, after the removal, will be carried on at 38, Main street, under the Backman House, where I hope that all those who have so far favored me with their custom, will put up with the inconvenience of walking a block further, as the quality of the goods will amply reward them for the trouble. Borrowing Money.

Borrowing money upon the installment plan is attended with these advantages: The loan can be repaid in small amounts which include the interest and part of the principal, so that by the expiration of the term it can be all paid without any great inconvenience to the borrower; the rate of interest is generally lower; the expenses of obtaining the money are less; and it is borrowed upon good paying property then in use, which will meet the monthly installments and in time pay off the debt. LOCAL BREVITIES.

The brig Lucas sailed North yesterday.

The steamer Senator left San Francisco yesterday.

The steamer Orizaba will leave for San Francisco this afternoon.

The Aliso Mill is about commencing work again.

It is reported that the Southern Pacific Railroad have reduced freight rates.

The publication of the Schoolmaster has been changed from Friday to Wednesday.

The spire of the Fort street Methodist Church, when completed, will be 120 feet high.

Mr. A. Borden, of Arkansas, has been in the city some time. He expects to bring his family here shortly.

H. Newmark & Co. shipped yesterday, 1,100 heads, destined for New York, by the Pacific Mail steamer Costa Rica.

D. P. Wigginton, Democratic candidate for Congress, will speak in Los Angeles on the 7th inst., and not on the 6th, as previously announced.

The election in the Fourth Ward District will take place September 1st instead of August 1st, owing to a mistake in the official advertisement.

Noyes, the auctioneer, goes up to Santa Barbara to-day to be a witness at the Cotton-Norton trial. He bought the wagon sold here by Cotton.

News of Miss Sarah Falls is wanted by her sister in San Francisco. Any one having information of her whereabouts will please leave it with Postmaster Bent.

A special convocation of Los Angeles Chapter No. 33 of Royal Arch Masons has been called for this evening, at eight o'clock sharp, for work in the fourth degree.

Mr. George A. Tiffany, who was so seriously injured on Saturday by the upsetting of his buggy into an arroyo on the other side of the river, is getting along very comfortably.

The City Superintendent will be in his office Thursday and Friday from 8 A. M. to 12 M., to receive all who may desire to consult him in reference to their children.

Messrs. Hellman, Hass & Co. have contracted with the Truedell salt works for eight hundred tons of salt, or 16,000 sacks. They received 400 sacks yesterday.

John Mayer was sentenced to $300 fine and 60 days solitary confinement in the county jail, for stabbing Hawley. It is a severe, but we hope salutary example to bad boys in our midst.

We notice with pleasure that Messrs. Eugene Meyer & Co., of the City of Paris, are doing a rushing business, but it is not surprising when one hears of the low prices at which they sell their goods.

Between eight o'clock last night and four o'clock this morning a sufficient amount of telegraphic matter was received at the Herald office from the Atlantic Pacific Telegraph Office to have filled seven columns. We have condensed much of it and left a large amount of it out altogether.

Mayor Beaudry had a popular levee yesterday. A visitor from the classic shades of Boston was fined $25 for bumping a Chinaman's head on the ground; a Chinaman was fined $20 for kicking a small boy, and four plain drunks got a sobering dose of $10 each.

Rev. J. S. Kallach, who preached in Turn-Verein Hall during a late visit to this city, has been elected President of the California College, Yacaville.

It is presumed that his connection with the College will be rather nominal, as he is still pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church in San Francisco.

We hear the name of Colonel Frank Ganahl mentioned in connection with the District Attorneyship of this county. If Colonel Ganahl should consent to accept the Democratic nomination for this position and we should find ourselves in a condition to be prosecuted we would make up our mind to get the limit of the law.

Messrs. Thos. A. Garey and Milton Thomas have presented a beautiful lot to the Board of Education. It is on Geary street, near First street, in that part of the city whence comes a petition for a school house. It is gratifying to record such evidences of public spirit. There are many men in this community who could increase their enjoyments by generous donations to the city schools.

Prof. Steen has effected wonderful results as a healer in the case of Mrs. Anderson, of Los Nietos. This lady has been paralyzed for several years, but since the laying on of Prof. Steen's hands she can move her paralyzed limbs easily, and from appearances, will soon be able to walk. Such a result is but the effects of friction or through the virtue of magnetism.

Prof. Steen has had astonishing results in minor ailments and achieved quite a reputation as a magnetic healer. His office hours are 9 A. M. to 12 M. and 1 P. M. to 6 P. M., at room 3, Lafayette Hotel, where he will attend the wishes of inquirers, whether sick or well.

THE INDEPENDENTS.

THEY NOMINATE.

Proceedings of the County Convention Yesterday.

Hazard and Bailey for the Assembly, Temple for Treasurer, and a "Likely Young Man" for District Attorney.

"HERE'S A GO."

Yesterday the Independents came and saw and conquered in their own peculiar way. A secret caucus of delegates was assembled at Good Templars' Hall in the morning, and after cutting and drying things to their satisfaction, they adjourned to the District Court room at about 11 o'clock, and proceeded to the work of ORGANIZATION.

With open doors. Dr. N. P. Richardson was chosen Chairman, and P. C. Tonner Secretary.

Committee on Credentials—Wm. Pridham, Dr. Geller, W. J. Smith and J. B. Holloway.

Committee on Order of Business—Messrs. Gibbs, Howe, Wolfskill, Morton and Gil Jones.

An adjournment was then had until one o'clock P. M.

RE-ASSEMBLED.

At the appointed hour the Convention re-assembled and proceeded with a little sparring to the work in hand. The delegates were congregated within the bar, and, outside the railing, a large crowd had gathered as lookers-on.

The Committee on Order of Business reported as follows:

1st. Receiving report of Committee on Credentials.

2nd. Nomination of candidates in the following order:

Members of Assembly, Treasurer, Sheriff, Clerk, Recorder, Assessor, Tax Collector, District Attorney, Auditor, Superintendent of Schools, Surveyor, Superintendent of Irrigation, Coroner, Public Administrator.

3. Miscellaneous business.

The Committee on Credentials reported the following parties as entitled to seats as delegates:

Los Angeles—N. P. Richardson, Ramon Sotelo, Gil Jones, L. A. Dunsmuir, L. Wolfskill, proxy for Stanton, Thos. A. Garey, L. Wolfskill, Wm. Pridham, Chas. J. Shepherd, William Moore.

San Gabriel—Geo. C. Gibbs.

Anaheim—J. P. Zeyn, William J. Smith.

El Monte—Budd Bryant, Wm. Geller.

Wilmington—S. L. Eames.

Azusa—W. H. Gurn.

Indiana Colony—J. Banbury.

San Juan Capistrano—M. Kraszynski.

Santa Ana—M. O. Stoddard.

Orange—M. A. Peters.

Silver—J. B. Holloway, D. P. Stewart.

Spadra—P. C. Tonner.

Compton—J. J. Morton.

Florence—W. Jenkins.

La Dow—Geo. J. Dalton.

Westminster—C. Howe.

The report was approved and Committee discharged.

Afterward Romulo Pico was admitted as a delegate from San Fernando.

Old Los Nietos was not represented.

MANEUVERING.

Mr. Smart cast a bombshell into the camp at the very outstart by moving that the Convention proceed to nominations by ballot. He raised a strong opposition from Mr. Tonner and others, who favored the adoption of the system employed in the Independent State Convention—a roll-call and viva voce vote. Mr. Holloway didn't want to proceed by any dark-lantern process. If they had axes to grind, let them be ground openly. Some delegates had come pledged for against certain candidates; let them show their hands.

After several parties had asserted themselves Independents—Free American Independents!—in the most forcible and elegant style, calmer counsel prevailed, and it was decided to vote by ballot.

SOME MORE OF THE SAME.

Mr. Jenkins moved that each nominee "pungle" to the extent of $3, to pay the expenses of the Convention. (Beef?) Amended that each delegate pay one dollar. No action.

THIRD BALLOT.

Hazard.....18
Bailey.....1

Mr. Hazard was declared a nominee and the Convention proceeded to determine upon another candidate by a

FOURTH BALLOT.

Bailey.....16
McFadden.....11
Gordon.....2

Alexander Bailey was declared the nominee of the Convention.

TREASURER.

Mr. F. P. Temple was placed in nomination for County Treasurer and the nominations closed.

On motion of Mr. Tonner, Mr. Temple was declared the nominee by acclamation.

Here they found they had forgotten something, and the motion was reconsidered until Mr. Temple could appear and pledge himself to the support of the ticket. Mr. Temple was sent for, and the order of business was taken up.

FOR SHERIFF.

The nominations were J. E. McComas of Compton; J. D. Bird of Anaheim; and H. Boyd of Los Nietos.

The nominations were closed and candidates pledged.

Judge Holloway and Mr. Smart made touching appeals to the Convention in favor of T. H. Boyd, claiming that he was the only living man who would support the ticket.

Mr. Temple appeared and pledged himself to support the ticket. The motion declaring him unanimously elected as the candidate of the Convention was then re-stated and carried.

Mr. Bird withdrew from the nomination for Sheriff, and Mr. Boyd was elected by a vote of 18.

COUNTY CLERK.

Dr. Richardson was nominated, but declined.

Mr. J. M. Baldwin was also placed in nomination, but declined.

Mr. S. B. Caswell was nominated and elected by acclamation.

FOR RECORDER.

The nominations were J. W. Gillette and J. M. Baldwin.

Judge Holloway asked, on behalf of the Independent Democrats, that Mr. Baldwin be nominated.

Mr. Stoddard thought it wrong to call up a man's antecedents in this Convention. We are Independents!

Mr. Stoddard suggested it best to play for the votes of the two parties. He wanted a popular ticket.

Mr. Smart thought he smelled a mice.

The ballot resulted in the nomination of Gillette by 22 votes.

FOR ASSESSOR.

Mr. Tonner made a strong plea for a representation of the Independent Democrats and nominated Fryer, from the Eastern part of the county.

S. A. Waldron, J. P. Guirado, J. K. Stump and R. J. Floyd were also nominated.

GETTING NERVOUS.

Mr. Tonner drove a spike into his nomination by saying that thus far but one Independent Democrat had been placed on the ticket. He had no hope that a Republican ticket could be elected if nominated by this Convention. The members were evidently growing nervous; things were going too much their own way, and they had a faint suspicion that they had put their foot in it.

MR. HAZARD.

Here appeared upon the scene, and proposed that the nominations for Assemblymen be rescinded and a new ballot taken, so that a Democrat and a Republican might be placed together at the head of the ticket.

Mr. Bailey, the other candidate, did not seem to indorse this plan. He had secured his nomination, and had evidently come to stay.

The question was quietly shifted to a more convenient session.

The balloting was then proceeded with, resulting as follows:

Fryer.....20
Waldron.....6
Guirado.....3

Fryer was declared the nominee.

TAX COLLECTOR.

The nominations were J. Q. A. Stanley and Horace Burdick.

Burdick was nominated by a vote of 21.

FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Major E. M. Ross was the only candidate placed in nomination. After they had elected him unanimously, the Convention once more found out that they had forgotten something. The Major was undoubtedly the candidate, but they had neglected the trivial preliminary of gaining his consent to run on the ticket and his endorsement of the Convention. A messenger was at once dispatched to bring the gentleman up and find out about these things.

While this was pending, the Convention proceeded to the nomination of AUDITOR.

Mr. Frank Sabichi was the only candidate. He took but half the Convention pill, when brought up to face the medical Chairman. He could not pledge himself to the support of the Independent State ticket; in fact, he was committed to the Democracy, but otherwise "Barkis was willing!" He would do all he could for the county nominees. This was considered pretty good for an Independent, and Mr. Sabichi was unanimously elected as the candidate for Auditor.

AN EPISODE.

Major Ross appeared—summoned, like Cincinnatus, into distinction without a moment's warning. The Major, for once, was taken by surprise and non-plussed. He, however, listened to the formidable resolution of allegiance. When it came the proper moment for a nice little speech of acceptance and obligation, he had simply to say that he intended to vote the Democratic ticket. This was awkward. To confound the confusion still more, there was a loud and inappropriate applause from the lobby. It was a good joke to all except the worthy delegates, who set against. As the best means of retreat from its embarrassing position, the Convention

CHANGED THE SUBJECT.

And proceeded to the nomination of School Superintendent. The nominees were Robert Furlong and Geo. H. Peck. The vote stood—for the former, 25, and the latter 4. Furlong was declared the nominee.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY AGAIN.

Judge Gibbs nominated Stephen M. White, "one of the likeliest young men in the county," and a rising lawyer. Mr. White was not at present in the county, but the Judge would vouch for his support of the ticket. He was very certain that Mr. White would accept the nomination.

Will D. Gould was also nominated, and gave his obligation to the Convention.

On ballot, Mr. White was chosen as the nominee.

COUNTY SURVEYOR.

For this office the nominations were: W. I. Rumble, L. Seebold and John Goldsworthy.

The second ballot stood: Rumble, 14; Seebold, 6; Goldsworthy, 7.

The nomination of Rumble was declared.

OTHER NOMINATIONS.

Nobody wanted the office of Superintendent of Irrigation, and after one or two futile efforts at a nomination, it was decided to leave the office out of the cold charities of the world.

Dr. N. P. Richardson was nominated by acclamation for the office of Superintendent of Public Administration, although he was not present to accept the proffered place on the ticket or to swear allegiance.

The nominations for Supervisors will be made by the delegates from the several Supervisor's Districts.

The County Central Committee will be named in the same manner.

Thus the labors of the day were concluded, and, without doubt, a ticket nominated which will secure the undivided support of the Independent Convention—no more.

The Bidwell Meeting.

The meeting held in front of Temple Block last night was a dull affair. About 400 assembled to hear and see Gen. Bidwell, and were generally disappointed in the manner and matter of his speech.

It was principally a personal defense, and a very weak one. When a candidate has to defend himself on every stump, his judgment or his record is defective. His conclusion was remarkable and can only be construed as inciting men's worst passions. He said, "Let us tell our oppressors we will not be their slaves; that our resistance will, if necessary, extend to revolution." The speaker was a healthy illustration of tyranny, a wealthy looking slave, as he sat down in all the glamour of his 30,000 acre farm. Judge Thompson followed, and we saw that one of his jokes, or anecdotes, was such that the faces of about 200 ladies in hearing actually blushed at its allusions. Other speakers followed, and the crowd dispersed dissatisfied.

Good News for the Afflicted.

Dr. J. J. McBride, formerly of Philadelphia and late of San Francisco, California, and China, has arrived and taken an office at the St. Charles Hotel, Rooms No. 18 and 19. Office hours, from 9 to 12 A. M. and 1 to 3 P. M.; Sundays, 9 to 10 o'clock. Wonderful! He is the only living man who can tell your disease without asking questions. Dr. McBride will offer to the afflicted his great remedy, "The World's Relief!" Cures rheumatism in one day! Cures fever and ague in one day! Cures neuralgia in five minutes! jy28 3t

Mr. G. W. Morgan advertises a tract of very rich land near Orange for sale in 10, 20 and 40 acre tracts. This land offers every advantage to actual settlers, even the facilities of water without extra charge. Its surroundings, Anaheim, Santa Ana, Orange and Tustin—are thriving towns, settled by enterprising citizens, who are constantly making valuable improvements. For fertility the soil is unsurpassed, and with the other advantages of good society, fine churches and live schools, the purchaser is offered an unusual opportunity. jy23 1w
